A fine business property in Sonoma is offered for sale in this issue. The property is renting at the present time for $60 per month with three tenants. For years this property has never been unoccupied. Title perfect. The property is located on Napa street and will be sold for $6,000. Terms easy. For further particulars apply to H. H. Granice, Sonoma.

Of late Mr. J. Chauvet of Glen Ellen has suffered many depredations at the hands of the dogs and hoodlums who attend the picnics from San Francisco every Sunday. Not long since a party of young fellows with a number of hoodlum girls called on Mr. Chauvet and said they wished to purchase some wine. When Mr. C. went into the wine cellar the crowd followed him. After waiting upon them he left the cellar but did not notice that one of the gang remained behind on the inside. After Mr. Chauvet had gone to his home some distance away the hoodlum left within the cellar pulled the spring lock and let his companions in, where they remained until they had drunk and wasted gallon after gallon of his choice wine. Why is it that the law is not enforced to protect respectable citizens from such outrages as the above?

CALLED AWAY.

Rev. Father Sullivan Appointed Pastor of St. Mary's Church, San Francisco.

On Sunday last at mass at St. Francis' church the pastor, Rev. Father Sullivan, announced that he was about to leave Sonoma, as he had received a summons from the Bishop calling him to a higher work, that of pastor of St. Mary's Church, San Francisco.

The reverend gentleman said that it was at the above church he had been an altar boy years ago; that he regretted to leave the people of Sonoma very much, still he felt to obey the Archbishop would be best. He had been living among the Sonoma people nearly four years, and he remarked those years were the happiest of his life. He then bid the congregation a touching farewell and many eyes were dimmed with tears throughout the large church.

As soon as it became generally known to the community that this good man was to leave many were the regrets heard, as the reverend father was popular with all classes irrespective of creed.

In taking his departure from Sonoma Father Sullivan does not leave "soured," but on the contrary turns his back on the old town with regret and the most kindly feelings.

During his stay here he has been surrounded with everything to make life pleasant—a beautiful cottage home, a fine large church, a congregation of intelligent and devout people.

Of all the priests that have ever been appointed in Sonoma none have been more respected and beloved than Father Sullivan, and his departure from our midst is regretted by the people of the entire valley.

The appointment to his new position is a great honor to Father Sullivan, as the congregation of St. Mary's is perhaps one of the most critical in San Francisco, and although quite a young man, he is capable of filling all the requirements of his new charge with ease, grace and ability.

The Rev. Father took his departure yesterday on the afternoon train for San Francisco and will immediately enter upon the discharge of his duties in his new field.

Rev. Father Brannan of San Francisco will assume charge of St. Francis' Church, and will celebrate mass tomorrow.

Death of Mrs. H. C. Callender.

Mrs. Callender, wife of H. C. Callender, after an illness of nine weeks, died at her home in this place on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady had been a resident of Sonoma for a number of years and had endeared herself to every one with whom she was thrown in contact. She was a devout member of the M. E. Church and always took a leading interest in its affairs. Deceased was 29 years of age and a native of Pennsylvania, and leaves a husband, mother and two sisters and a host of friends to mourn her untimely demise. Mrs. Wm. Trudgen of this place is one of deceased's sisters.

The remains accompanied by the relatives and several friends boarded the Southern Pacific Railroad at El Verano and on arriving at Cordelia were driven to the pretty little church in Rockville, some two miles from the town of Cordelia, where an impressive funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. King assisted by the Rev. Mr. Trudgen, who dwelt on the goodness and virtue of this noble wife, daughter, and sister. After this touching eulogy a last fond look was taken of the dear face. Then the coffin was closed and borne to its last resting place, and interred beside those of an only brother, who was killed in a railroad accident a few years ago.

Another Ranch Changes Hands.

P. L. McGill has sold his farm of sixty acres, located three miles and a half south of Sonoma, to J. W. Sharp. This farm is under a high state of cultivation and is one of the finest 60-acre properties in the valley. The amount paid by Mr. Sharp for his purchase has not been made public, but is said to be in the neighborhood of ten thousand dollars. One hundred acres of unimproved land adjoining has also been sold by Obed Chart to Mr. Sharp for $5,000 and the two tracts will be converted into one farm of 160 acres.

Saturday Night Socials at Union Hall.

The first of a series of Saturday night socials will be given at Union Hall by Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Moore on the evening of Saturday, June 6th. An admission fee of 50 cents will be charged gentlemen, while ladies will be admitted free. See announcement in another column. On the occasion of the opening night refreshments will be served gratis to those in attendance.

Card of Thanks.

I take this method of expressing my sincere thanks to those many friends who so kindly lent their aid and sympathy in my late bereavement.

H. C. CALDERWOOD.

Sonoma, May 28, 1891.

Rev. David Reid will shortly leave for Victoria, B. C., on a vacation, ill health compelling a change of climate. During the reverend gentleman's absence his father, Dr. Reid, will occupy the pulpit of the Congregational Church.

The only commercial hotel in Sonoma is the Union.

PRESENTATION CONVENT.

Closing Exercises—Father Sullivan Bids the Pupils a Farewell.

The closing exercises of the Convent School were held on last Wednesday at 10 o'clock A. M. The programme prepared was not all rendered, owing to the fact that the pupils were grieving much at being about to lose their loved pastor.

What was delivered, however, was most creditable both for pupils and teachers. At the close of the exercises one of the boys of the school delivered a very touching farewell address to the reverend pastor, after which he presented him with a very valuable set of breviaries in the name of his companions. Immediately after one of the young lady pupils addressed very feelingly to Rev. Father Sullivan in behalf of the female portion of the school. She thanked the Rev. clergyman for his many acts of kindness, expressed regret at his being about to depart from Sonoma, and at the close presented him with a very beautiful lace all as an expression of the lasting gratitude entertained towards him by the young lady pupils.

Rev. Father Sullivan next addressed the pupils and gave each an appropriate gift. Among these were two beautiful gold medals which were awarded by the pastor to Miss Katie McDonnell and Miss Emily Kearney, senior pupils of the school, for progress in study, also some handsome books as rewards of merit to the above young ladies and Misses Catalota and Melinda Conant.

Improve Your Farms.

Many improvements have been made the past few months on Sonoma Valley farms. Notably among these we may mention the farm of Mr. Otto Muser, situated one mile south of Sonoma, which has undergone almost a complete transformation. This farm of forty acres has been newly fenced, the residence and outbuildings put in thorough repair and the land placed under a high state of cultivation. Old fruit trees and deceased vines have been grubbed out and in their place has been planted one of the finest Bartlett pear and peach orchards in this valley. The young trees, planted this spring, have made an excellent growth, and bid fair to compensate the owner ten-fold for his outlay when they shall have come into full bearing, which will be in four or five years.

The Robt. C. Johnson Estate.

A decree of partial distribution has been entered in Judge Coffey's Court, San Francisco, in the estate of the late Robt. C. Johnson, the deceased millionaire. Personal property valued at $11,242 was ordered distributed to the widow, Mrs. Robt. Johnson of Buena Vista Park, upon her executing a bond in the nominal sum of $100, to secure the payment of her share of the debts of the estate if there should be any. The personal property for the most part consists of rare and costly statuary and paintings in the Johnson city residence on the corner of O'Farrell and Leavenworth streets. Among these is a statue of Caesar Augustus, valued at $4,000 and a painting by a French artist appraised at $1,000. Mr. Johnson was a great lover of art during his lifetime, as likewise is the widow.

The Fourth in Sonoma.

The Native Sons of this place will give a picnic at Maxwell's Grove on the Fourth, which will wind up with a ball in the evening in Sonoma. Henry Hogan, Esq., of Napa will deliver an oration and there will be dancing, games and other amusements on the picnic grounds.

GLEN ELLEN GOSSIP.

We are pleased to state that Mr. Isaac Wright, who has been ailing for some weeks, is around again.

Mr. Wooley, agent of the Santa Rosa Democrat, was around Thursday soliciting subscribers for that paper.

Several mowing machines are at work in this vicinity. The hay crop bids fair to exceed that of previous years.

Mr. A. Roucoviery came up from San Francisco one day this week and made a short stay on his olive farm near this place.

Mine host Harrison, E. Bustamante and N. R. Hansen are touching up their sign boards and otherwise improving their premises.

Geo. Beatty is moving his large hay barn to a more desirable location. He is making many other improvements of a substantial nature.

Several knock-outs took place in this quiet town the past week. An over-indulgence in the contents of the black bottle was the main cause.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Shinn, old residents in this section, returned home last Saturday from an extended visit to their relatives in Arkansas.

The picnic from San Francisco last Sunday which was participated in by several Groves of Druids had a very pleasant time in the park. About 600 members of the order were on the grounds.

Glen Ellen Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, was organized last Saturday by Don Mills, a Past Master of Bennett Valley Grange and Grange Organizer for this district. He was ably assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Whittaker, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Whittaker and Holman Talbot of Bennett Valley Grange, and Miss Anderson of Santa Rosa Grange. After the usual preliminaries the following officers were elected: J. M. Zane, Master; J. V. Miner, Overseer; W. J. Williams, Lecturer; J. M. Hendley, Steward; Martin Peter, Assistant Steward; C. H. W. Bruning, Treasurer; L. Knight, Chaplain; R. P. Hill, Secretary; C. A. Kennedy, Gate Keeper; Mrs. Miner, Pomona; Mrs. Zane, Flora; Mrs. Williams, Ceres; Miss Bruning, Lady Assistant Steward; Trustees—R. P. Hill, Mrs. W. J. Williams and J. M. Hendley.

WIDE AWAKE.

Glen Ellen, May 28, 1891.

A Card.

MR. GRANCE—Dear Sir: In the absence of Mrs. Warfield I take the liberty to correct the statement which appeared in the INDEX-TRIBUNE of Saturday, 23d inst. It is the administrator of the Drummond estate who has filed an appeal to the Supreme Court of the State to set aside the decision of Judge Dougherty, which was made in favor of Mrs. Warfield.

I presume you gained your information from a similar statement which appeared in the Santa Rosa Republican of the 20th inst., a misrepresentation doubtless given to the editor. Respectfully,

MRS. M. E. OVERTON.

Glen Ellen, March 26, 1891.

Chicken Stealing.

About the meanest thing a man can do in this world is to levy tribute on his neighbor's chicken roost. But this is what A. H. Rackliff has been charged with by J. H. Smith of Santa Rosa. It is claimed by the prosecution that the accused was detected in the act of attempting to dispose of the stolen poultry.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Senator Ragsdale and Boddier Faylor—A Demurrer Filed.

George Faylor, who claims to have been the go-between of fifteen State Senators and parties who desired the passage of certain bills by the last Legislature, which has been charged with being the "rockiest" ever convened in Sacramento, has had his suit answered by Senator Ragsdale of this county, one of the defendants. On Monday last Mr. Ragsdale appeared in the Superior Court in San Francisco and demanded that Faylor file a bill of particulars of his so-called services. A demurrer was also interposed to Faylor's complaint on the grounds that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Maxwell Exonerated.

A special meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners of San Francisco was held Wednesday afternoon, says the Bulletin, for the purpose of trying George H. Maxwell, clerk of the Board, charged with receiving money from persons of whom the supplies were bought while he was clerk of the Corporation Yard. All the evidence introduced was in Maxwell's favor, and the investigation ended in his acquittal and restoration to duty. It was charged by him that the whole affair was originated by Clerk Broad, his successor at the Corporation Yard.

A certain cure for malarial fever is found in Simmons' Liver Regulator.
